CIVIS event - European Universities between territorial integration and global ambition

All of the CIVIS Community is invited to participate online at the our conference on "European Universities between territorial integration and global ambition: a new dynamic for the Europe-Africa partnership?" on Thursday 10th March, 9h-13h. You can find the full program and register through this link.

From March 9th-11th, AMU will host a series of CIVIS events focus on partnerships between Europe and Africa, a strategic priority for the CIVIS Alliance, and the current French Presidency of the Council of the European Union.

This series of event will be the opportunity to officially welcome our six african universities Rectors and teams. A ceremony will take place to sign the strategic partnership agreement between the African rectors and the CIVIS Board of Rectors on Friday 11th.

Thanks to WP5 for the great work to develop this important events.

Staff activities - The CIVIS academy

The Secretary General Task Force has structured a brand new range of opportunities for all CIVIS staff members! These staff activities (workshops and training courses) have been opened by each CIVIS member.

For interested people, it is mandatory to take contact with the CIVIS team and/or project managers of their home university.
