NKUA takes the CIVIS Presidency

After 6 months of CIVIS Presidency by ULB, during which Rector Prof. Annemie Schaus proudly represented the alliance's interests with the signing of the strategic partnerships agreements between CIVIS and each of the 6 african associated partner universities, it is time to give the floor to NKUA Rector Prof.Meletios-Athanasios Dimopoulos as the new President of CIVIS.

The coming 6 months will be crucial to achieve CIVIS1 objectives!

You can find here the interview of the CIVIS President by the CIVIS Communication Office.

Solidarity and support for Ukraine

As the war continues in Ukraine, the CIVIS community stands with the victims of the armed conflict and the country's entire educational and research community.

You can now find every actions undertaken by CIVIS member universities to support people in Ukraine in this new webpage on the CIVIS website.

Finally, you can find here an inspiration statement from Commissioner Mariya Gabriel on a subject that is right in line with our Global CIVIS Days focus on Society, Culture & Heritage!

CALL BIPs Deadline - 30th may

The call for Blended Intensive Programmes (BIP) is still open to all CIVIS academics until 30th May.

For now, 43 projects' applications are under progress. Mobilities in the CIVIS2 budget will mainly be funded via BIPs, therefore we kindly remind you the importance of forwarding this first call at your home university level.
